

New Times,
New Spaces:

DR Responds
to Change

NATIONAL MEDIATION MINI CONFERENCE

On-line event 24 July 2020

Your opportunity to access:

- expert insights and analysis of topical issues; and
- engage in discussion of ideas and reflection on practice."

Hosted by
THE UNIVERSITY OF NEWCASTLE
AUSTRALIA
NEWCASTLE LAW SCHOOL

Program (Times are AEST)

10.00 Welcome to country, Introductions, Objectives, Organisation

10.15 Responsive DR, conflict management and peace-making in Covid times and spaces Presenter: Professor Laurence Boulle

10.35 Reconciliation: The Uluru Statement from the Heart.
Presenter: Thomas Mayor

11.25 What does research tell us about what makes good mediators? A systematic appraisal of key mediation studies
Presenter: Alysoun Boyle

11.55 Justice in the pandemic age: Courts as responsive agencies Presenter: Hon Judge Joe Harman Federal Circuit Court

12.30 Break-out Sessions with Speakers, Chairs and Participants: Courts group / Reconciliation group / Research group / Time and space group

13.00 Mining and Culture: Responding to traditional values and corporate interests. Presenter: Dr Carol Bond

13.30 Mediator Standards – remaining fit for purpose
Presenter: Bianca Keys

14.00 DR Institutions – Responding to changing circumstances
Presenters:

Dr Andrew Bickerdike Relationships Australia (Vic)

Russell Thirgood, Chair, Resolution Institute

14.30 On track for Alice and the Desert Knowledge Precinct: NMC 2021

Presenters: Maureen Abbott Alysoun Boyle

Registrations www.nationalmediationconference.com

The NMC Board respects the essential living custodial relationship between all First Nations peoples and the land, the water and the oceans, and we respect their cultural and spiritual practices. We recognise all Elders, past, present and emerging, and are committed to reconciliation among all people"